"... indeed meditative and mellow, [he] sacrifices no musical rigor to achieve those ends. With backgrounds in jazz, Latin music, rock, pop, film composing, and classical piano, Louis brings his breadth and depth of experience to bear here. His playing and compositions are sensitive as they are complex and... a diverse range of influences is more than apparent."

Keyboard Magazine

"He has a gift for composition that is second to none."

New Age Reporter

"...for those who like their solo piano music rich and full."

Wind & Wire"

Instrumental music is so powerful its interpretation is left to individual discretion as no two people hear music in exactly the same way. That composers intend their music to speak for itself is no accident, as excellence is a matter of intention. The most definitive bodies of instrumental music incorporate various influences that have evolved through the ages and resonate with sophisticated audiences in such a manner a wide variety of listeners embrace the emotional intent collectively.

Solo pianist and composer, Louis Landon from Chestnut Ridge, New York, has dedicated his life to music. His career has taken him around the world playing a variety of styles with some of the most recognized names in the entertainment industry. Yet, not long ago, Landon realized that his own music - the solo compositions that bring him so much joy and peace could surely bring joy and particularly peace to millions around the world who struggle to cope as unwitting witnesses to unnecessary destruction.

Landon's seventh CD, and second solo piano release "Peace Revolution" launched earlier this year, and continues to receive radio airplay worldwide. He's been interviewed on several NPR stations in support of "Peace Revolution" coinciding with critically favorable reviews of the 12-track CD. His first solo piano CD, "unwind" rose to No. 3 on the NAR charts and was nominated for Best CD of 2006, and Best Solo Piano CD of 2006 in the New Age Reporter Lifestyle Awards.

To further his efforts as a peacekeeper and one man making a difference, on June 2, 2008 Landon began recording and posting Improv for Peace to Myspace, which he intends to continue doing until the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan are over. Landon posts free downloads of the *Improv*s on his website: <http://www.louislandon.com/> . In four month's time, the idea has gained great popularity as a grassroots effort and thousands of downloads and plays of his music are accumulating worldwide. As of June 1, 2009, 108 *Improv*s have been created, over 8 ½ hours of music! *Improv*s for Peace support Landon's fervent notion that music can bring peace to the world. He writes in his mission statement and the closing to all correspondence: Love and Peace Always and Everywhere.
